Combat Arms Earplug Settlement Achieves Another Milestone with Participation of All Wave Plaintiffs

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 15, 2024 – Since the Combat Arms Earplug settlement agreement was announced in August 2023, it has received strong and widespread support from claimants and the broader military community. This support has helped the parties and the courts reach the next milestone set forth in the agreement toward full implementation of the settlement.

Specifically, all the remaining “wave” plaintiffs, whose claims were being prepared for trial prior to the settlement agreement, have now agreed to participate in the settlement and release their claims. 3M recognizes this strong support and 100% participation of the remaining wave claimants and has amended the existing settlement agreement timing. The company will accelerate the payment ($253.1 million) due for these cases to on or before Jan. 31, 2024, in keeping with our commitment to resolve these claims.

Aearo and 3M will continue to work with all parties and the courts toward full implementation of the settlement agreement and will provide updates as additional milestones are reached.

Additional details of the agreement, including the anticipated payment schedules provided that certain conditions are met, are available in 3M's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
