FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

3M Q3 Sales Rise 10 Percent to $7.5 Billion;
Earnings Were $1.52 per Share, Down 1 Percent Year-on-Year;
Company Adjusts Full-Year 2011 Sales and Earnings Expectations

ST. PAUL, Minn. — October 25, 2011 - 3M (NYSE: MMM) today reported third-quarter sales of $7.5 billion, up 9.6 percent year-on-year. Operating margins were 21.0 percent. Earnings were $1.52 per share, a 1 percent decline versus the third quarter of 2010. The company generated $1.0 billion in free cash flow during the quarter, equal to 94 percent of net income.

Third-quarter worldwide sales growth was 9.6 percent, of which 3.7 percent came from acquisitions, 3.1 percent from foreign exchange impacts, 1.9 percent from organic volume growth and 0.9 percent from higher year-on-year selling prices. Organic volume growth was below recent trend levels, reflecting weakness across the electronics market along with generally slowing economic growth in the developed world. 3M also noted that a number of its customers reduced inventories during the quarter in anticipation of slowing demand.

Excluding the positive impact of currency, five of the company's six business segments expanded sales in the quarter, with Industrial and Transportation up 15.1 percent, Safety, Security and Protection Services up 14.1 percent, Health Care up 10.9 percent, Consumer and Office up 4.6 percent and Electro and Communications up 1.0 percent. Local-currency sales in Display and Graphics declined 14.1 percent, largely due to end-market weakness and lower attachment rates in LCD TVs.

The company reported year-on-year sales increases in all geographic regions. Sales in local currencies grew 11.2 percent in Latin America/Canada, 9.2 percent in the U.S., 5.9 percent in Europe and 2.1 percent in Asia Pacific. Excluding optical, Asia Pacific sales increased 11.3 percent in local currencies.

"The business environment remains challenging, as the economic softening that we experienced late in the second quarter continued into the third," said George W. Buckley, 3M chairman, president and chief executive officer. "While growth rates were good across much of our portfolio, LCD TV remained weak and momentum slowed in other parts of electronics following several quarters of very good growth. In addition, ongoing policy uncertainty and austerity are affecting growth in Western Europe, which reduced sales in the quarter. As is typical, we are seeing the impact of these changes earlier than most as our customers decrease production in order to lower their inventories. Conversely, we should benefit more quickly when those markets recover."

Buckley continued, "Looking ahead, early evidence suggests slower growth will persist through year end, therefore we are responding to lower demand with aggressive cost management and operational discipline in developed economies. At the same time, we are bullish on many developing economies and plan to maintain key investments in R&D, sales and manufacturing to capitalize on underlying strength in those regions. Innovation always separates great companies from the pack, particularly during periods of slower growth, as customers seek partners they can trust. 3M is blessed with highly capable leadership teams, adept at navigating economic uncertainty while aggressively driving innovation and growth."

Reflecting this outlook, 3M updated its 2011 full-year performance expectations. The company now expects earnings to be in the range of $5.85 to $5.95 per share versus a prior expected range of $6.10 to $6.25. Included in this estimate is a $0.22 per share year-on-year increase in pension and postretirement benefit expense. Excluding the pension and postretirement expense increase, 2011 earnings would be in the range of $6.07 to $6.17 per share, an increase of 8 to 10 percent. 3M also expects full-year organic sales volume growth of 3 to 4 percent versus a prior expected range of 6 to 7.5 percent. The company now expects that currency effects will add 3 to 3.5 percent to sales for the year and acquisitions will add another 3 to 3.5 percent.

Third Quarter Business Segment Discussion

Industrial and Transportation

- Sales of $2.6 billion, up 15.1 percent in local currency, including 6.8 percent from acquisitions.
- All businesses grew sales in local currencies, with double-digit increases in abrasives, renewable energy, aerospace and industrial adhesives and tapes.
- Sales rose by 28 percent in Asia Pacific, 22 percent in Europe, 15 percent in Latin America/Canada and 10 percent in the U.S.
- Operating income rose 21 percent to $525 million; operating margin of 20.4 percent.

Health Care

- Sales of $1.2 billion, up 10.9 percent in local currency, including 5.3 percent from acquisitions.
- Double-digit local-currency sales growth in infection prevention; local-currency sales also increased in health information systems, skin and wound care, oral care and food safety.
- Local-currency sales declined in drug delivery systems business.
- Sales rose at a double-digit rate in every geographic region, with Asia Pacific up 20 percent, Latin America/Canada up 16 percent, Europe up 13 percent and the U.S. up 12 percent.
- Operating income increased 13 percent to $367 million; operating margin of 29.5 percent.

Consumer and Office

- Sales of $1.1 billion, up 4.6 percent in local currency.
- Positive local-currency sales growth in the DIY, home care, consumer health care and stationery products businesses.
- Sales grew by 18 percent in Asia Pacific, 11 percent in Latin America/Canada, 5 percent in Europe and 4 percent in the U.S.
- Operating income up 4 percent to $244 million; operating margin of 22.3 percent.

Safety, Security and Protection Services

- Sales of $954 million, up 14.1 percent in local currency, including 5.7 percent from acquisitions.
- Strong double-digit local-currency sales growth in personal safety, roofing granules, track and trace, security systems and corrosion protection businesses.
- All geographic regions posted positive sales growth, with the U.S. at 28 percent, Asia Pacific at 25 percent, Latin America/Canada at 21 percent and Europe at 11 percent.
- Operating income rose 23 percent to $202 million; operating margin of 21.1 percent.

Display and Graphics

- Sales of $935 million, down 14.1 percent in local currency.
- Local currency sales declined 28 percent in optical systems, driven by continued weakness in the LCD TV market. Excluding optical, total Display and Graphics sales declined 0.8 percent in local currencies.
- Sales in traffic safety systems declined in local currency, due to weak highway construction funding by governments in the U.S. and Western Europe.

- Local-currency sales rose in architectural markets and commercial graphics.
- Sales increased 10 percent in Latin America/Canada and were flat in the U.S.; sales declined 4 percent in Europe and 20 percent in Asia Pacific.
- Operating income of $179 million, down 37 percent year-on-year; operating margin of 19.1 percent.

Electro and Communications

- Sales of $838 million, up 1.0 percent in local currency.
- Sales to electronics up just slightly, impacted by decelerating end market demand.
- Single-digit local currency sales growth in electrical and communication markets businesses.
- Sales grew 7 percent in both Europe and the U.S., 3 percent in Asia Pacific and 2 percent in Latin America/Canada.
- Operating income of $181 million, a decline of 1 percent; operating margin of 21.6 percent.

RECONCILIATION OF GAAP TO NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES
(Millions, except per-share amounts)

(Unaudited)

In addition to reporting financial results in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), the company also discusses non-GAAP measures that exclude special items. Operating income, net income attributable to 3M (hereafter referred to as “net income”), and diluted earnings per share attributable to 3M common shareholders (hereafter referred to as “diluted earnings per share”) are all measures for which 3M provides the reported GAAP measure and an adjusted measure (excluding special items). Special items are not in accordance with, nor are they a substitute for, GAAP measures. Special items represent significant charges or credits that are important to an understanding of the company’s ongoing operations. The company uses these non-GAAP measures to evaluate and manage the company’s operations. The company believes that discussion of results excluding special items provides a useful analysis of ongoing operating trends. The determination of special items may not be comparable to similarly titled measures used by other companies.

The reconciliation provided below reconciles the non-GAAP financial measures with the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures for the nine-months ended September 30, 2010. There were no special items for the three-months and nine-months ended September 30, 2011, or for the three-months ended September 30, 2010.

Special items:
Medicare tax change (a)	—	84	0.11
Adjusted Non-GAAP measure	$ 4,617	$ 3,241	$ 4.47

(a) The first nine months of 2010 includes a one-time, non-cash income tax charge of $84 million, or 11 cents per diluted share, resulting from the March 2010 enactment of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, including modifications made in the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010 (collectively, the “Act”). The charge is due to a reduction in the value of the Company’s deferred tax asset as a result of the Act’s change to the tax treatment of Medicare Part D reimbursements.

- (c) Free cash flow is not defined under U.S. GAAP. Therefore, it should not be considered a substitute for income or cash flow data prepared in accordance with GAAP and may not be comparable to similarly titled measures used by other companies. The company defines free cash flow as net cash provided by operating activities less purchases of property, plant and equipment. It should not be inferred that the entire free cash flow amount is available for discretionary expenditures. The company believes free cash flow is a useful measure of performance and uses this measure as an indication of the strength of the company and its ability to generate cash.

Effective in the first quarter of 2011, 3M made certain product moves between its business segments in its continuing effort to drive growth by aligning businesses around markets and customers. There were no changes impacting business segments related to product moves for the Display and Graphics segment or the Consumer and Office segment. In addition, 3M results in total did not change. The financial information presented herein reflects for all periods presented the impact of product moves between business segments, which are summarized as follows:

Certain pressure sensitive adhesives products within the Industrial Adhesives and Tapes Division and shock absorption and vibration dampening products used in electronics within the Aerospace and Aircraft Maintenance Department (both within the Industrial and Transportation business segment) were transferred to the Electronic Markets Materials Division (part of the Electro and Communications business segment). In addition, certain medical respirator products within the Infection Prevention Division (part of the Health Care business segment) were transferred to the Occupational Health and Environmental Safety Division (within the Safety, Security and Protection Services business segment). The preceding product moves resulted in decreases in net sales for the total year 2010 of $152 million in the Industrial and Transportation business segment and $8 million in the Health Care business segment. These decreases were offset by increases in net sales for the total year 2010 of $121 million for the Electro and Communications business segment and $8 million for the Safety, Security and Protection Services business segment along with a $31 million change in the elimination of dual credit sales and corporate and unallocated.
